

people compare.co.uk

First of our Kind.

Peoplecompare.co.uk is the first recruitment business comparison site of its kind. Due for launch 1 July 2008 we are now welcoming subscriptions from established agencies.

In the current financial climate cost control is key in both domestic and business environments. The insurance / financial services market is now dominated by tools enabling an individual to gather a multiple pieces of information quickly and make an informed choice. Until now, no such advancement was available to the recruitment sector.

Peoplecompare.co.uk is a new tool for potential clients and employers to easily determine the most practical companies to deal with based on their current requirements. So if an employer is looking to recruit an Account Manager in the North East with a history of B2B sales within the telecoms market, then peoplecompare.co.uk will list all of the agencies within that region that specialise in the field without the need for extensive searching.

A Real-time recruitment tool.

For a recruitment business this tool will bring genuine clients with genuine vacancies directly to your user account.

A lot of the largest agencies obtain distinct market share in certain area's due to their financial capabilities and advertising budgets.

Peoplecompare's aim is to even out the playing field by enabling agencies to showcase their USPs , financial benefits and company history and to be deemed as a supplier of choice.

When you become a member of Peoplecompare.co.uk you will be given personal account details which will enable you to adjust your marketing and costing matrix's on the site in real time.

We will also upload your company logo and generate for you a monthly report which will show the employment activity within your region. This will enable you to effectively monitor your marketing activity through the site and give yourself a better chance of gaining the interest of the end users.

Independent and cost effective.

Peoplecompare.co.uk is totally independent of any recruitment business and we do not take a commission from agencies upon placements.

You are only ever charged for the information you utilise, the rest is upto you!

We also have no allegiance to any advertiser on our site as everyone pays the same subscription cost regardless of size or reputation.

We understand that relationships exist between employers and agencies and we do not expect that this site will interfere with these relationships.

The aim of Peoplecompare.co.uk is to introduce you to genuine employers looking to fill a vacancy that may not necessarily have an agency partner at the moment.

The need to reduce overheads is a realistic concern across the entire job market, due in the major part by the reality of the current financial environment. With peoplecompare.co.uk your gross margins will undoubtedly increase due to your cost per head reducing.

Simple.

For a minimal subscription and administration cost of £150 + VAT you will be given a 12 month subscription + a further 3 months free of charge as an introductory offer.

When a client adds you to the list of agencies they would like to consult about their requirements, you will be emailed a link containing their contact information and a brief job description, simple!

Space on the site is deliberately controlled to keep your listing relevant and poignant, as such we are encouraging users to register swiftly.
